NBIS INFORMATION DAYS: GATEWAY TO EXCELLENCE

Ningbo British International School (NBIS) recently hosted a series of immersive Information Days, offering parents a glimpse into the enriching educational opportunities across different sections. These events, held on May 14th, May 16th, and May 17th, showcased NBIS's commitment to excellence in the Early Years, Primary, and Secondary sections. Here's a condensed overview:

Early Years Information Day - May 14th, 2024:

Parents were immersed in NBIS's Early Years section, guided by the Head of Early Years, Mr Brian Thomas, the Assistant Head of Early Years, Ms Karen Yang, and the Director of Admissions, Ms Vicky Ren. Engaging presentations, immersive tours, and a vibrant Q&A session inspired parents by NBIS's holistic learning approach. Visiting parents praised the welcoming atmosphere, innovative teaching methods, and sense of community.

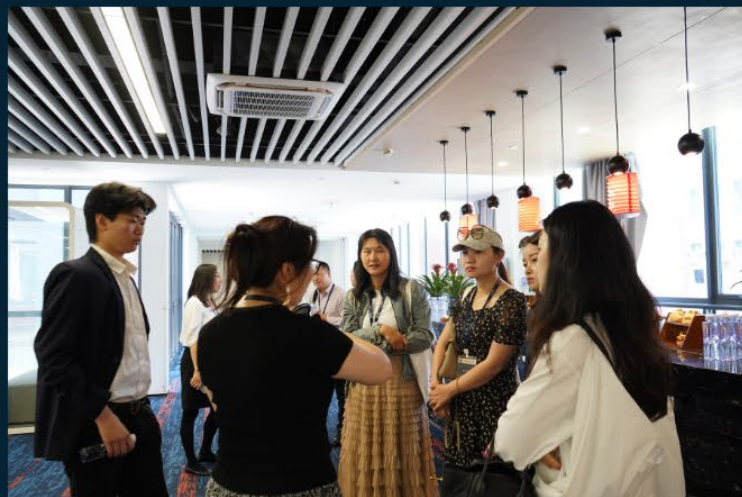

Primary Information Day - May 16th, 2024:

Families explored NBIS's Primary Section, led by Mr Kash Bane, the Head of the Primary section, Ms Sally Shen, the Assistant Head of Primary and Ms Vicky Ren, the director of admissions. Guided tours, insightful presentations, and interactive Q&A sessions empowered parents to envision their child's educational journey. Positive feedback from visiting families highlighted the school's academic rigour, supportive environment, and opportunities for student growth.

Secondary Information Day - May 17th, 2024:

Parents eagerly explored NBIS's dynamic Secondary Section, led by Aaron Lowe, Head of Secondary, and Emily Zhang, Head of Chinese. Engaging presentations and interactive Q&A sessions with outstanding student representatives clarified educational offerings, empowering informed decisions. Visiting parents commended NBIS's commitment to student success, diverse extracurricular activities, and personalised approach to education.

The Information Days showcased NBIS's commitment to nurturing a supportive and enriching learning environment. These events emphasised academic excellence, holistic development, and community engagement. They offered families insight into our core educational values and the opportunities for students to thrive. As we welcome new families, we embark on a journey of growth and success together, fostering leaders in an inclusive and supportive setting.

New families are warmly welcome to reach out to NBIS for enrolment inquiries.

To begin your journey with us, contact Ms Vicky Ren, our dedicated Director of Admissions, at 0574-87611005/83888071.

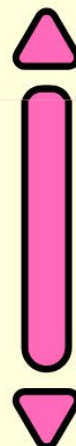

Additionally, we invite parents to connect with us via email at nbis.admin@nbis.net.cn.

We look forward to helping you and your family join our vibrant NBIS community.

Reception A

Ms Samy & Ms Chelsea

This week in Reception A, students had the opportunity to participate in the school book fair and the school's book week.

It is a week dedicated to instilling the love of reading. Our Reception A students enjoy reading and going through the pages of a book to discover new characters.

"Once you learn to read, you will be forever free."
-Frederick Douglass

ONOMATOPOEIA & ALLITERATION POEMS

Ms Jenny Chen

Year 5A students are learning about figurative language in the unit of Poems for English class. In this activity, they explore using onomatopoeia (words that resemble sound) and alliteration (words that start with the same sound) to create rhymes and poems.

Happy Mother's Day

Ms Emma Xu

The 12th of May is the traditional Mother's Day. On this global day of celebration, the Secondary Chinese Department organised activities such as writing poems and making cards for mothers to express their respect and gratitude to mothers.

Through the activities, students learned about the history and origin of Mother's Day, and the language of flowers represented by different colors of carnations. Some classes also shared small allusions about traditional Chinese mother's love. Each class also expressed their deep love for their mothers by making small greeting cards in the form of words and poems.

PHYSICS

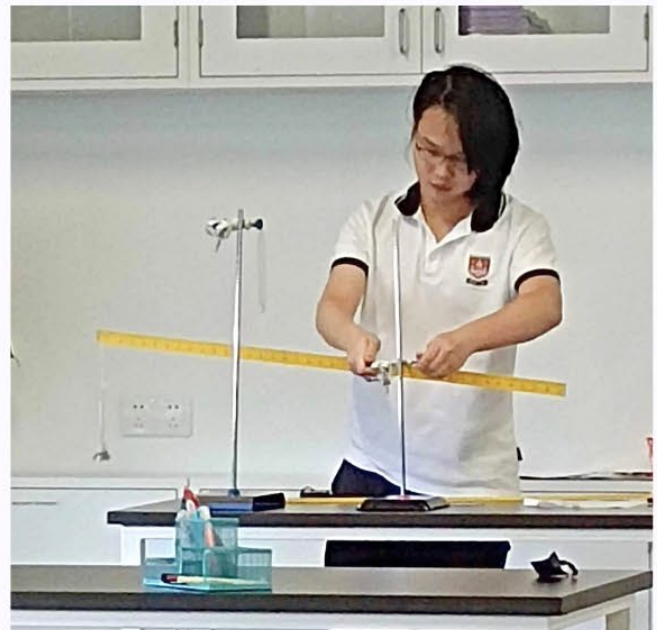

Mr Bevan Shirley

IGCSE and A Level Physics presents real world applications and concepts for the students to study, discuss, and apply what they have learnt in practical experiments.

They are allowed to develop their practical skills, using equipment, and techniques that are important for their future learning, and careers.

Students learn how to conduct scientific experiments, following step by step instructions, while taking the necessary safety precautions.

They are rigorously prepared for their external examinations, setting the path for them to become the scientists and engineers of tomorrow.
